

SAN ANTONIO

WINERY

& MADDALENA RESTAURANT

Since 1917,
the San Antonio Winery
has added flair and flavor to celebrations of friends and families throughout Los Angeles and the West.

Today, it is the last of more than one hundred producing wineries that once lined the Los Angeles River Basin. It is a popular restaurant and legendary banquet location, a comprehensive tasting room, and an international wine shop with hundreds of domestic and imported labels.

The Winery is an oasis of good living in the heart of the city.

THE WINERY'S MADDALENA RESTAURANT

In her restaurant, you will discover the essence of her homeland: rotisserie meats, fresh pastas, and an array of tempting salads and grilled entrees. Like all continental cuisine, wine is a welcome companion at every meal. Choose from the handcrafted Riboli Family of Wines or other acclaimed wines from all over California and around the world.

Parties and celebrations at the Winery are a frequent and time-honored tradition for friends, families, businesses and organizations. The festive atmosphere, fine food, music and wine make any occasion all the more memorable. The cask-lined walls have a long, time-honored history of fellowship and high spirits.

*C*elebrating special occasions and dining among the aging casks at the Winery has been a Los Angeles tradition since 1975. The roots of this tradition are found in the long-standing legacy of European hospitality. Maddalena Riboli first imagined bringing the European charm of family dining to Los Angeles while visiting the Italian countryside. Maddalena was born in the Italian province of Asti, known for its simple but flavorful cooking. She is the creative force behind the Maddalena Restaurant.

*T*he Winery's distinct Old World flavor and continental charm add luster to parties of virtually any size. Our Vintage Room, which seats 80 to 100 people, is a perfect location for weddings, anniversaries, reunions, or special business lunches. There is a separate meeting room with full audio/video presentation capabilities.

Dining is and always was a great artistic opportunity.

Wine in itself is

When Stefano Riboli's uncle, Santo Cambianica, founded San Antonio Winery in 1917, he began a winemaking tradition that has spanned four generations. Today, the entire Riboli family continues this proud devotion to quality. To celebrate this achievement, all of our handcrafted products belong to the Riboli Family of Wines. Our commitment is reflected in every bottle that bears the Riboli name.

Our family's dedication extends beyond the art of making fine wine to the science of growing exceptional grapes. We farm vineyards in select coastal regions of California renowned for producing exquisite wines.

Today, you can still see the pride in handcrafting wine at San Antonio Winery, a tradition that spans four generations. If you have ever wondered how fine wines are made, we invite you to visit our working winery and see the process with your own eyes.

Our knowledgeable staff will explain the history of wine-making in California, the importance of vineyard locations, and the various tools and techniques used by winemakers. Come see our redwood and stainless steel tanks, our cool fermenting cellars filled with oak barrels, and our modern bottling facility.

We are open daily for guided winery tours, offered on the hour from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Special group tours for clubs and organizations are welcome. Reservations are recommended.

Maddalena Vineyard

Family matriarch, Maddalena Riboli, has inspired both a restaurant and a brand of high quality varietal wines from California's Central Coast. Grapes are grown in renowned viticultural regions that include Monterey and Paso Robles. Maddalena Vineyard features balanced wines with ripe fruit flavors and an elegant finish. They include Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, Riesling, Gewurtztraminer, Muscat Canelli and White Zinfandel.

San Simeon Reserve

This reserve collection of Maddalena Vineyard showcases a rounder, more opulent style of wines. The San Simeon Chardonnay and Merlot gain complexity and elegance from malolactic fermentation and small oak barrels. Grape sources include Monterey, Santa Maria and Paso Robles.

San Antonio

The San Antonio brand represents the traditional wines of our company. Fine California table wines; dessert wines including Marsala, Madeira, Sherry and Port; and sacramental wines for religious ceremonies compose the backbone of our original brand.

La Quinta

Inspired by the roots of California's winemaking past, La Quinta celebrates high quality dessert wines from the sunny vineyards of the Golden State. La Quinta Imperial Port is a stunning blend of traditional Portuguese grape varieties. Other flavorful dessert wines include Embassy Cream Sherry, Almondoro and Crema Marsala.

Kinderwood

Kinderwood wines reveal bright, lively fruit flavors with a soft finish. This consistent style is maintained by blending grapes from vineyards throughout the California Coastal appellation. Kinderwood wines include Chardonnay, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon.
